SYC FUK pieces seem to be the rebel anti-label of choice and has been featured on the cover of Alternative Press, YRB Magazine, and featured in People, US Weekly, and Cosmopolitan.

About Bucky Bakes

Bucky Bakes founded SYC FUK in 2005 with the intention of redefining fashion. His vision was to make high quality, eye-catching, must have one-of-a-kind great fitting pieces. His passion for anti-fashion developed at an early age. Bucky was born in Pennsylvania, raised in Colorado, and has been living in LA for the last 15 years. Bucky, influenced by his upbringing and unique sense of style, expressed his creativity through the balance of positive and negative factors, plunging deep in the American Punk Rock scene. He started making his own clothing including tee shirts and jackets. Never embracing the mainstream, Bucky proudly ripped, cut, drew, painted, dyed, and safety pinned his one of a kind creations. Bucky's passion for anti-fashion shows as he breaks all the rules with deconstruction of fabrics, leathers, prints and precious metals.

On June 2nd, SYC FUK will put on its ANTIiii-Fashion Show at the famous Playhouse venue in the heart of Hollywood at 7PM. Playhouse is located at 6506 Hollywood Boulevard. Guest models walking the runway in SYC FUK designs include Playboy Playmates Niki Ziering, Alie Layus, Korina Bliss, & Hiromi Oshima. Live performances by sensational all girl pop/rock band Nylon Pink - whose music has been featured on MTV's The Hills, The City and Jersey Shore. Also performing, the electro-rock duo known as Officially Hollywood. Many other celebrities and rock stars are expected at this sold out event.
